

First Aid Training Short Courses

Build your confidence to respond to an emergency!

This First Aid Training short-course programme will give you the skills, knowledge and confidence to respond to any emergency – at home or in the workplace.

This programme has been designed specifically to meet OSH and workplace requirements.

Programmes to Meet Your Needs

Choose from two First Aid Training programme options - Comprehensive and Revalidation. Programmes are flexible, competitively priced and taught by highly qualified and experienced instructors. Programmes are delivered in an easy learning, relaxed class environment. You'll receive lots of confidence-building, hands-on practice, plus you get to take away excellent printed resource materials as a valuable reference tool for the future.

Brief Programme Outline

Programmes are delivered in small groups over one or two days, depending on your requirements. You will gain knowledge over a full range of first aid topic areas through hands-on activities and scenarios, in an easy learning, low-stress class environment. You'll also gain a formal qualification.
